BUDGETING FOR BIBLE SCHOOL

For many students each year we recognize that finances can be a struggle. The thought of paying for a year of tuition can often be overwhelming! But the Lord remains faithful and loves to draw us to Himself as we learn to rely on Him, especially in this area. While trusting the Lord for His leading and provision, the below are a few practical things we'd like to highlight or suggest in order to help you plan your finances for Bible School:

1. The full Tuition Fees are considered a charitable donation for income tax purposes in Canada. For most, this amounts to a substantial tax refund in the Spring. This would also be something to tell your church/friends/family who may like to make a tuition payment on your behalf.
2. Consider whether your church family may like the opportunity to support you in this way. Many churches are happy to make a tuition payment on behalf of a student who wishes to attend Bible School. We are also happy to provide you with pledge cards to make available.
3. If you are working currently or plan to work before starting Bible School, consider disciplining yourself to set aside a portion of what you earn each month in order to save. Christmas Break and Spring Break will also provide possible opportunities to work in order to raise finances to put towards tuition fees.

PRIVACY POLICY: Capernwray Harbour Bible Centre is committed to protecting the privacy, confidentiality and security of student, guest and staff personal information and has a Privacy Policy for these. The Policy can be found at our website www.capernwray.ca (under TAB "More Info") or can be obtained by contacting chbc@capernwray.ca or (250) 246-9440.
